Reflective Questions for Participant Download and Use

www.siblingresources.org

Reflective Question Form from the Online Sibling Module

Please print this Reflective Question Form so you can think about these questions while you co mplete the Online Module. Feel free to jot down your answers or consider them in your head.

•	What have you learned from your sibling? What has your sibling learned from you?
•	In Sibling Needs Across the Life Course, which of the sibling needs can you most relate to in your life currently? Are there any sibling needs that you think this list has forgotten?
•	How does having a Sibling with a Disability Affect Women and Girls? by Wisconsibs describes that sisters, mostly oldest sisters are more involved in the care of their siblings. Why do you think this is the case?

Re

In the video by Amira Rasheed, how does Amira feel that her siblings have supported her?
In which level (individual, community, or legislative) do you advocate the most often Which level is the most challenging level for you to do advocacy?
In the article What Siblings Would Like Parents and Service Providers to Know by De Meyer, which of the ideas seem most relevant to your sibling experience?